Applicable portions of the Bylaws have been referenced below:

No animal, including household pets, shall be maintained by any Co-owner unless specifically approved by the Association, except that a Co-owner may maintain one domesticated dog and/or one domesticated cat in his/her Condominium Unit. All pets must be registered with the Association prior to being brought onto the Condominium Premises or into a Unit. The Association may adopt a pet registration form. All animals must be cared for and restrained so as not to be obnoxious or offensive on account of, by way of illustration and not as limitation, excessive or persistent barking, odor, or unsanitary conditions. No animal may be kept or bred for any commercial purpose. No animal may be permitted to run loose at any time and shall be leashed on a leash not to exceed 10 feet in length. No pets may be "tied out" on the Common Elements. No savage or dangerous animal shall be kept and any co-owner who causes any animal to be brought or kept upon/within the condominium premises indemnifies and holds harmless the Association for any loss, damage or liability. Each Co-owner shall be responsible for collection and disposition of all fecal matter deposited by any animal maintained by such Co-owner. The term "animal" or "pet" as used in this section shall not include small domesticated animals which are constantly caged, such as small birds or fish. In the event of any violation of these restrictions, the Association may assess fines for such violation in accordance with the Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of the Association.
